TABLE OF CONTENTS

ABBREVIATIONS 10

PREFACE 14

1 PERSONS IN SLOVAK PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW 16

1.1 Natural Persons 17

1.1.1 Legal Capacity and Capacity to Act 17

1.1.1.1 International Jurisdiction of Slovak Courts 18

1.1.1.2 Determination of the Applicable Law: Lex Patriae 18

1.1.1.3 The Protective Clause of Section 3 para 2 PILA 19

1.1.1.4 Restriction of Capacity 20

1.1.2 Name and Surname 20

1.1.2.1 Applicable Law 20

1.1.2.2 Interaction with EU Law 21

1.1.2.3 Regulation on Public Documents 22

1.1.2.4 Transcription and Transliteration 22

1.1.3 Death and Declaration of Death 23

1.1.3.1 Jurisdiction of Slovak Courts 23

1.1.3.2 Determination of the Applicable Law 24

1.1.4 Persons with Multiple Nationalities, Stateless Persons and Persons of Unknown or Indeterminate Nationality 26

1.2 Legal Persons 27

1.2.1 Connecting Factors: The Incorporation Principle and the Real Seat Principle 27

1.2.2 Incorporation Principle in the Slovak Private International Law 28

1.2.3 Scope of the Personal Statute of Legal Persons 29

1.2.4 Change of Personal Statute and Cross-Border Mobility 30

1.2.5 Interaction with EU Law 31

1.3 State as a Subject of Slovak Private International Law 32

2 PROPERTY MATTERS IN SLOVAK PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW 34

2.1 International Jurisdiction in Property Matters 34

2.1.1 Introduction 34

2.1.2 The Scope of Brussels I bis and the Threshold Question 35

2.1.2.1 Material Scope 35

2.1.2.2 Personal Scope 36

2.1.2.3 Territorial Scope 37

2.1.2.4 Temporal Scope 37

2.1.3 Jurisdiction Criteria 38

2.1.3.1 Exclusive Jurisdiction under Article 24 Brussels I bis ... 38

2.1.3.2 Tacit Prorogation under Article 26 Brussels I bis 40

2.1.3.3 Protective Jurisdiction in Insurance, Consumer, and Employment Matters 41

2.1.3.4 Express Prorogation under Article 25 Brussels I bis 42

2.1.4 General Jurisdiction under Article 4 Brussels I bis 43

2.1.5 Special Jurisdiction under Articles 7 and 8 Brussels I bis 44

2.1.5.1 Contract under Article 7 para 1 Brussels I bis 45

2.1.5.2 Tort under Article 7 para 2 Brussels I bis 46

2.1.5.3 Civil Claims Arising from Criminal Proceedings under Article 7 para 3 Brussels I bis 47

2.1.5.4 Recovery of Cultural Objects under Article 7 para 4 Brussels I bis 48

2.1.5.5 Branches, Agencies, and Other Establishments under Article 7 para 5 Brussels I bis 49

2.1.5.6 The remaining heads of special jurisdiction contained in Article 7 Brussels I bis 50

2.1.5.7 Connected Claims and Related Proceedings under Article 8 Brussels I bis 50

2.1.6 Limitation of Liability in Maritime Matters under Article 9 Brussel I bis 54

2.1.7 Residual Jurisdiction under Article 6 Brussels I bis 54
2.1.8 Lis Pendens and Related Actions under Articles 29–34 Brussels I bis 56
2.1.9 Provisional and Protective Measures under Article 35 Brussels I bis 57
2.1.10 Is there any room for application of PILA? 58
2.1.10.1 General Rule 59
2.1.10.2 Property-Based Jurisdiction 59
2.2 Rights in rem in Slovak Private International Law 60
2.2.1 Concept of Property Statute in Slovak Private International Law 60
2.2.2 Determination of Property Statute in Slovak Private International Law 62
2.2.2.1 General Rule: Lex Rei Sitae under Section 5 PILA 62
2.2.2.2 Movable Property under Section 6 PILA: Temporal Dimension of Lex Rei Sitae 63
2.2.2.3 Movable Property in Transit: Res in Transitu and Lex Loci Expeditionis 64
2.2.2.4 Multimodal Carriage 64
2.2.2.5 Immovable Property and Registration Requirements under Section 7 PILA 65
2.2.2.6 Acquisitive Prescription under Section 8 PILA 67
2.2.2.7 Proprietary Effects of Contracts under Section 12 PILA 68
2.2.2.8 Intermediated Securities: A Gap in PILA 70
2.3 Obligations in Slovak Private International Law 70
2.3.1 Contractual Obligations in Slovak Private International Law 72
2.3.1.1 Sources of the Conflict-of-Laws Rules for Contractual Obligations 72
2.3.1.2 Connecting Factors 75
2.3.1.3 Scope of the Applicable Law 88
2.3.1.4 Validity of the Contract 89

2.3.1.5 Specific Questions under PILA 91
2.3.2 Non-Contractual Obligations in Slovak Private International Law 92
2.3.2.1 The position of Rome II within the system of sources of Slovak PIL 93
2.3.2.2 The scope of Rome II 96
2.3.2.3 The structure of conflict-of-laws regulation under Rome II 101
2.3.2.4 Choice of law under Article 14 Rome II 102
2.3.2.5 General conflict-of-law rule on non-contractual obligations arising out of a tort/delict – Article 4 105
2.3.2.6 Specific conflict-of-law rules for non-contractual obligations arising out of a tort/delict 111
2.3.2.7 Non-contractual obligations other than those arising out of tort/delict 114
2.3.2.8 Scope of the applicable law 115

3 FAMILY MATTERS IN SLOVAK PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW 117
3.1 International Jurisdiction in Family Matters 117
3.1.1 Autonomous regulation on international jurisdiction in family matters 117
3.1.2 The Hague Conference on Private International Law and the EU: The unification of international jurisdiction in family matters 121
3.1.3 The legal framework governing international jurisdiction of Slovak courts in matrimonial matters 124
3.1.4 Legal regulation of international jurisdiction in matters of parental responsibilities 129
3.1.5 System of rules on international jurisdiction under Brussels II ter in matters of parental responsibility 130
3.1.6 Legal regulation of international jurisdiction in matters of maintenance obligations 135
3.1.7 Legal regulation of international jurisdiction in matters of maintenance obligations under the Maintenance Regulation 137

3.2 Conflict of Law Method in Determination of Applicable Law in Family Matters 141
3.2.1 Influence of the EU and the Hague conference on private international law on conflict-of-laws regulation in family matters 143
3.2.2 Determination of the applicable law under the 1996 Hague Convention on the Protection of Children 148
3.2.2.1 Law applicable to measures of the protection of child 149
3.2.2.2 Applicable law to parental responsibility arising without intervention of an authority 150
3.2.3 Law applicable to maintenance obligations arising out of family relationships 154
3.2.4 Applicable law in family matters under PILA 160
3.2.4.1 Relations between spouses 162
3.2.4.2 Relations between parents and children and guardianship 164
3.2.5 Bilateral agreements on legal assistance 167

4 SUCCESSION MATTERS IN PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW 169
4.1 International Jurisdiction in Succession Matters 169
4.1.1 PILA 169
4.1.2 Succession Regulation – scope of the application 171
4.1.2.1 Determination of jurisdiction 173
4.1.2.2 General jurisdiction rule 174
4.1.2.3 Subsidiary jurisdiction 176
4.1.2.4 Choice of court 179
4.1.2.5 Jurisdiction based on appearance 180
4.1.2.6 Forum necessitatis 180
4.1.2.7 Limitation of proceedings 181
4.1.2.8 Lis pendens 181

4.1.3 International agreements on legal assistance 182
4.2 Conflict of Law Method in Determination of Applicable Law in Succession Matters 182
4.2.1 PILA 183
4.2.2 Succession Regulation 185
4.2.2.1 General rule 185
4.2.2.2 Choice of law 187
4.2.2.3 Dispositions of property upon death other than agreements as to succession 189
4.2.2.4 Other Questions Governed by Succession Regulation 189
4.2.3 International agreement on legal assistance 189

5 RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT OF FOREIGN JUDGMENTS IN SLOVAK PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW 190
5.1 General Framework of Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments 190
5.1.1 Necessity to regulate the recognition and enforcement of judgments within the EU 196
5.1.1.1 Exequatur: Meaning and Historical Development 197
5.1.1.2 Sources applicable between Member States: Overview 199
5.1.1.3 Recognition and Enforcement under Brussels I bis 201
5.1.1.4 Specialised EU Instruments Removing Exequatur before Brussels I bis 203
5.1.2 Recognition and Enforcement under International conventions 205
5.1.2.1 Bilateral Agreements on Legal Assistance 205
5.1.2.2 Multilateral Conventions: The Hague Conventions, Lugano Convention 206
5.1.3 Recognition and Enforcement under the PILA 208
5.1.3.1 Conditions for Recognition and Enforcement of Judgments 208

5.1.3.2 Methods of Recognition and Legal Effects of Foreign Judgments under the PILA 211
5.2 Selected EU secondary-law instruments facilitating the free movement of judgments within the EU 215
5.2.1 European Enforcement Order for uncontested claims 217
5.2.2 European order for payment procedure 223
5.2.3 European Small Claims Procedure 229
5.2.4 Common features of the selected instruments 235

6 SLOVAK PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW AND LEGAL ASSISTANCE IN RELATIONS WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES 236
6.1 Principles for legal assistance in relations with foreign countries 236
6.2 Contact between State Authorities 238
6.3 Sources of Law 239
6.3.1 PILA 240
6.3.2 EU Regulations 245
6.3.3 Digitalisation of Judicial Cooperation 254
6.3.4 International Conventions 257

7 CERTIFICATES OF LAW, RECIPROCITY, AND OTHER ACTS IN RELATION TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES 261
7.1 Determination of foreign law under PILA 262
7.2 European Convention on Information on Foreign Law 264
7.3 Certificate of Slovak Law 266
7.4 Reciprocity 267
7.5 Legalisation of documents 272
7.6 Other duties of courts in cross-border cases 274

BIBLIOGRAPHY 277